At the present time a 30 minute class with a Bible story/lesson, a song or craft is being offered. Sharing the love of Jesus with our children is the most precious and important gift we can give to them. Helpers are always welcome, if you enjoy reading a story, singing or making a craft let Tracy know!! While the children are enjoying their time in class, we invite you to have a cup of coffee and a treat on us.

All Saints Day November 1. All Saints Sunday will be observed Sunday November 6th. It is on this Sunday, that we remember those who have died in the Lord during the past year on or after November 1, 2021. If you have a loved one, whether it is a family member, friend, associate of some kind whom you would like to have remembered, we would be glad to include them in our remembrance. Please let the church office know on or before November 1.

Look it over, answer the questions and come and share your thoughts and ideas! Pastor Dobberstein will be leading our discussion
